

Nature's Phoenix 2nd Edition: Series Webinar Schedule & Index

August 2024 - November 2024 | Via Registered Zoom Link*

*Click on each listed date to register or watch webinar recording

Nature's Phoenix, a groundbreaking book on mixed-severity fires, is now available in an extensively updated second edition. This webinar series will explore key themes from the book, featuring presentations from contributing wildfire experts to show how science is transforming our understanding of wildfires and the resulting implications for fire policies.

Wednesday, August 14 12:00pm PT	Subject: Unraveling the Climate-Fire Nexus Speakers: Dr. Dominick DellaSala, Chief Scientist of Wild Heritage and Dr. Chad Hanson, Principal Ecologist & Director of the John Muir Project
Tuesday, September 10 9:00am PT	Subject: Birds & Mammals in Severe Fire Environments Speakers: Dr. Monica Bond, Principal Scientist of Wild Nature Institute; Dr. Richard Hutto, Professor Emeritus of Biology & Wildlife Biology at University of Montana; and Maya Khosla, M.S., Wildlife Biologist & Writer
Thursday, September 26 12:00pm PT	Subject: Confounding the 'Overgrown Forests' Myth Speakers: Bryant Baker, M.S., Director & Principal GIS Analyst of Wildland Mapping Institute and Dr. Chad Hanson
Wednesday, October 9 12:00pm PT	Subject: Ecological Cost of Postfire Interventions Speakers: Michelle Connolly, M.S., Director of Conservation North and Dr. Dominick DellaSala
Wednesday, October 23 12:00pm PT	Subject: Rethinking Fire Management - Beyond Backcountry Logging Speakers: Dr. Dominick DellaSala and Luke Ruediger, Conservation Director of Klamath Forest Alliance
Wednesday, November 6 12:00pm PT	Subject: Megafires - Catalysts for Ecological Renewal Speakers: Dr. Dominick DellaSala and Dr. Chad Hanson

Moderated by Doug Bevington, Forest Program Director of Environment Now foundation